

Orange County Historical Society, 21 Clove Furnace Dr., Box 55, Arden, NY 10910

JOIN US FOR OUR ANNUAL DINNER

And History Program

When: October 4, 2025

Time: 12 Noon

Where: TEQUILA GRILLE, 63 Still Rd, Monroe, NY 10950

Speaker: Tiffanie Sutton

Topic: Lucy Knox

This program continues our focus on significant Revolutionary era personalities. One of the re-discovered heroines is Lucy Knox. Her amazing role and adventures in secretly relaying information of British movements to her husband General Henry Knox will surprise and captivate you. This is a wonderfully absorbing and astonishing narrative. The authoritative account will be presented in a truly lively fashion by our guest speaker, Tiffanie Sutton.

Tiffanie is a vibrant interpreter of history for regional historical organizations. She will provide her listeners with a fascinating talk and slide show about an unusual Revolutionary era, Lucy Knox. In the past Lucy had been an overlooked figure but she now commands more attention from local history lovers. Be sure to join us!

Please select your dinner choice at $45 per person:

London Broil _____ Herb Crusted Haddock _____ Chicken Francese _____

Name _____

Email _____

Address _____

Amount enclosed $ _____

Please write your check to: Orange County Historical Society